

Charades

What you need

Scissors

Four or more players

How to play

1. Print out the scam activity sheets and ask a parent or guardian to help you cut out the different cards. Use the list of cards to play a game of charades.
2. Divide into teams and give each team an equal number of cards.
3. Set a time limit for each game you play.
4. Taking it in turns, one player from each team takes a card from their pack. Without speaking they have to act out the word for their team mates to guess.
5. The team that guesses the most answers is the winner.
